

Jerry Wu

Mr. Wu is a Director and Head of Research for the Dalton Greater China Hedged Equity Strategy. From 1996 to 2006, Mr. Wu held various positions in investment banking and venture capital, most recently as Director in the Technology Investment Banking Group at Merrill Lynch & Co. He was also a member of the Investment Team at TeleSoft Partners, a $650mm venture capital firm, and Vice President in the Technology Group at Credit Suisse First Boston. From 1991 to 1994, Mr. Wu was an engineer with Silicon Graphics. He graduated from Stanford University (BS/MS Electrical Engineering) and holds an MBA from The Wharton School.

Dalton Investments is a registered investment advisor with the Securities and Exchange Commission (US). The firm currently has $1.1 billion in assets under management and serves institutional and private clients. Dalton offers six investment strategies, including Japanese management buyouts, Japan equity long-only, Japan equity long/short, Greater China equity long/short, global small-cap equity long/short and global large-cap equity long/short.